

THRASHER LEADS BATTERS

VIRGINIA LEAGUE RECORDS COMPILED BY BOATWRIGHT

Dolly Gray tops all in home runs, Snyder was best first sacker, Newton led keynoters.

Buster Thrasher, the Mary Jane outfielder, leads the Virginia League in batting for the season just closed, according to statistics compiled by President J. O. Boatwright. His average for 121 games, during which time he came to bat 431 times, is .348. While a number of others playing in less than fifty games, follow him, Walters, of Newport News, is the real runner-up, hitting for an average of .302. In 125 games. Rice, of the Orphans, little, of Rocky Mount, and Gray, of Rocky Mount, are all within the charmed circles.

The slugging Dolly Gray, former Richmond, worked in 129 games and hit for a percentage of exactly .300. He, however, led the league in home run making, fifteen eleven games during the season. By a peculiar freak, probably due to his averseness, Dolly failed to land a single triple, but made twenty-four two-baggers.

Smith, of Newport News, topped the league in stolen bases, pilfering sixty-six sacks. His nearest competitor was Allan, of Suffolk, with forty-nine. Little, of the Tarheels, scored 117 runs, which was five more than his nearest competitor. He also led the league in bases on balls, getting fifty-five passes.

SUNNY JIM SNYDER IS LEADING FIRST SACKER

Sunny Jim Snyder, former Colt, playing in eighty-one games, led the first basemen in fielding with a percentage of .950. He erred nine times in 751 chances, or once in 83.45. He was the only player in 123 games, and Folles, in 122 games, made percentages of .952 in fielding.

Another former Colt, Doc Newton, led the second sackers, with a fielding percentage of .946 in forty-five games. Steinbrenner, playing in 124 contests, was the real top-notch, however, with an average of .976.

Cleveland, of Norfolk, in 129 games, led the hot-corner guardians, making a fielding percentage of .960. Danmar, of Portsmouth, the Athletic recruit, was third, with a percentage of .947, for 129 games.

Wright, of Rocky Mount, with 441, in forty-seven games, and Molly McMahon, manager of the Tars, with 353, in 116 games, lead the shortstops in fielding. Simmons, of the Orphans, in ninety-five games, topped the outfielders, with .885, but Dolly Gray, playing in 129 games, was a close second, with a percentage of .878.

Rice, of the Orphans, led the pitchers in fielding, with a percentage of .962. Others to make the perfect percentage were Wood, of Portsmouth; Kaufman, of the Orphans; Eldridge, of the Truckers; and Applegate, of Rocky Mount. The latter was in thirty-seven contests.

Garvin, of Portsmouth, playing in sixteen games, fielded perfectly. Hudgens, of Suffolk, in sixty-four games, led for .950.

Eldridge, of Portsmouth, twirled in five games, winning four, but losing none. Pitchers working in twenty or more games, were led by Leake, of Rocky Mount, with a winning percentage of .500, and one tie for a percentage of .500. Cochran, of Norfolk, working in thirty games, won sixteen, lost eight and tied three for an average of .667. Efrid, of Suffolk, made four winning percentages on the mound, winning eighteen, losing eleven and tying two, for .521. Gardner, of Newport News, worked in the same number of games, and tied for the same winning percentage. Mickey O'Brien, of Rocky Mount, and Charlie Strain, of Portsmouth, both former Richmonders, made averages of .512 and .500, respectively.

Official averages of the Virginia League.

Catarrh of the Ear Cured in One Month

Machinist Practically Lost Hearing, but Treatment of United Doctors Completely Remedied Trouble.

Mr. W. L. Morcock, of 1327 Rorer Street, recently found that his hearing had become badly affected. He is a machinist by trade, and the affliction caused him much unhappiness, not to mention the suffering. Inquiry disclosed the fact that catarrh of the ears was the cause of his trouble, and he promptly consulted the United Doctors. This was on August 26, and to-day, one month later, he is completely cured, and his hearing is as good as it ever was.

The United Doctors are daily giving treatment to many people who have heretofore been unable to get benefit from other sources and come to us as a last resort.

ARM ABSOLUTELY USELESS. CURED OF NEURITIS

Miss Bertha Holland, of 313 1/2 Dance Street, this city, says: "I came to the United Doctors exactly one month ago, and was unable to use my right arm. To-day I am cured. I can use my arm as well as I ever could. I cannot praise the United Doctors too highly, as they have cured me when every other source had failed heartily recommend them to all sufferers."

If you suffer from any of the chronic diseases mentioned below, and have been unable to secure permanent cure or relief, call at our offices, Third Floor, Lyric Theater Building, Ninth and Broad Streets.

YOU CAN SEE BIG GAMES

NEW ELECTRIC SCOREBOARD BUILT FOR TIMES-DISPATCH

Direct Advertis Will Run From Ball Parks—$5000 Persons Will Be Accommodated Free.

While fans in Boston and Philadelphia are madly scrambling for tickets to see the big clash this week—and paying fabulous prices to the speculators for the coveted pastboards—the baseball lovers of Richmond will see the great event, according to a recent announcement, without paying a cent. With direct wires running into the baseball parks, The Times-Dispatch will be enabled to flash the news, play, on its big scoreboard, which is newer and better than in the past.

Realizing the great interest in the world's series, The Times-Dispatch has had the scoreboard constructed, and it will be erected early this week on the front of its building, on South Tenth Street. Arrangements have been made to keep traffic off the street during the progress of the game, and standing capacity will be available to more than 5000 persons. All will be within easy reading distance of the big games. The board will be hung higher than that of last year, and the lighting will be better. In fact, everything possible to better the service has been done.

The new board is a model of completeness. It will show the progress of the game, play by play, and any student of the national game will be able to follow each play almost as well as if he had a 35 seat in the grand stand of the park. Thousands of fans last year watched the games on the miniature diamond, and were more than pleased with the service. This year they will be in a better position to follow the game, and there will be no more of the craning of necks in the multitude crowded in the South Tenth Street canon.

OPENING GAME IN PHILLY

NATIONAL COMMISSION HAS VERY HARMONIOUS MEETING

All Details For World's Series Taken Up—President Invited to See Games.

NEW YORK, October 2.—The National Commission, at its meeting to-day, decided that the first game of the world's series shall be played in Philadelphia on Friday, October 8. The second game is set for the next day, October 9, in the same city. The third and fourth games will be played in Boston on October 11 and 12, respectively. The fifth in Philadelphia on October 13 and the sixth in Boston on October 14. The seventh, if one is necessary, will be played on Friday, October 15. The place for this game will be chosen by the toss of a coin.

These and many other details in connection with the holding of the world's series were decided at a meeting here to-day of the National Baseball Commission. Harmony was the keynote of the meeting.

The site of the first contest was decided by the fall of a coin tossed by the secretary of the commission, William E. Baker, of the Philadelphia Nationals, who won the toss, promptly named his home park as the scene of the initial game.

President John K. Tener, of the National League, selected Charles Rigler and W. E. Baker as the umpires to arbitrate for the senior league, and President Johnson named William Evans and Frank O'Loughlin as the umpires for the American League.

The following eligible players were named: Philadelphia, National League—Alexander, Adams, Bancroft, Baughman, Becker, Byrne, Cravath, Chalmers, Duxey, Demaree, Killifer, Luderus, Morse, Moyer, McQuillan, Nichols, Paskert, Rixey, Stock, Tamm, Whitely, Weiser.

Boston, American League—Barry, Carlsen, Cady, Collins, Foster, Gregg, Gardner, Gainer, Hoblitzell, Hooper, Hurlbut, Janney, Leonard, Lewis, Luderus, McNally, Ruth, Shore, Scott, Speaker, Thomas, Wood, Wagner.

It also was decided that in case any game postponed or was stopped while the score remained at a tie, such game would be played in the same city where it was originally scheduled, and with the same umpires.

The trip of the two teams to the Pacific Coast for a series to be played in connection with the exposition at San Francisco also was informally discussed.

It was decided to confer with a committee from the Far Coast during the world's series and definitely to settle the question of the trip at that time.

The opening day for the interclub series at Chicago was set as Wednesday, October 6, at the White Sox Park, with games to alternate thereafter between the Cubs and the White Sox grounds, except that all Sunday games will be played at the American League International League, was selected to take charge of this series, with Captain Adrian C. Anson as the National League's representative. The National League named Emory Loughery and Orth and the American League Dineen and Connolly for the games.

LOONIES LOSE TO CADETS

WILLIAM AND MARY HAS NO CHANCE WITH REGULARS

Scored on Scrub Line-Up, but First String-Unit Were Rushed to Rescue.

LEXINGTON, VA., October 2.—In a hard-fought contest, marked by much penalizing, the Virginia Military Institute football team defeated William and Mary College here this afternoon by the score of 19 to 7. Almost a scrub eleven represented the institute in the first quarter, which was responsible for the Loonies' only score. From then on the line held fast with the regulars in position, and the visitors could not advance. The first quarter ended with the ball on V. M. I.'s five yard line, and at the beginning of the second it was carried over by Gayle. By a series of line plunges both Harris and Fetteroff made touchdowns. Failure was made to kick goal each time. In the third quarter Fetteroff made a brilliant play, running for a yard, while Pole Gray kicked goal, who suffered a badly mangled shoulder. The stars of the game were Fetteroff, Harris and Pole Gray, for V. M. I., and Gayle, for William and Mary.
